

Fairfield Heights

Licensed Post Office Fairfield Region

This mature Licensed Post Office's income is derived from a margin placed on items such as postage stamps, postage related products, stationery, postpak, cards and gift lines. These product ranges are purchased from Australia Post or external suppliers at wholesale and passed on to the customer at retail prices. Commission payments are also received from Australia Post on behalf of agency principals for banking and billpay, passport interviews & photographs etc along with payments for delivery related work on behalf of Australia Post such as private box sorting, carded parcel delivery.
